

Your child spends the majority of their day in school...

You have the right to know they're safe!

Get trained to become a parent activist for a safer school

Know Your Rights: Breaking Down Sexual Harassment in Schools

Students in NYC experience sexual harassment from students, student safety officials and teachers in the form of:

- Pressure for sex
- Groping in the hallways
- Stalking to and from school
- Bullying about their sexual identities
- Sexually explicit comments about their bodies

Attend a FREE Training

Saturday, April 28th, 2012

11am-1pm

@ The Pacific Branch of the Brooklyn Public Library

25 Fourth Ave at Pacific St. Brooklyn, NY

Directions: 2/3/4/5/B/D/N/Q trains to Atlantic Av-Pacific St.

Contact Nefertiti Martin, Community Organizer at Girls for Gender Equity at (718) 857-1393 ext. 102 or coalition@ggenyc.org.

Coalition for Gender Equity in Schools (CGES) collaborates with youth, educators, parents, activists and policy makers to raise awareness about the impact of sexual harassment in New York City schools and works towards achieving gender equality in the education of New York City youth. www.ggenyc.org